

ALIVE WITH HISTORY

Enrich the moment by exploring the past. With a walk down the brick-paved streets of old downtown. In museums showcasing the arts and artifacts of the golden age of rail and sail. Or a tour of historic mansions, where you can marvel at the stately architecture and manicured gardens of a bygone era. In the early 1900s, mining and timber barons built many of the incredibly ornate homes of Duluth, which had more millionaires per capita than any other city in the world.

COASTAL LIVING MAGAZINE RANKED DULUTH A "TOP TEN B&B TOWN" IN THE U.S. FOR ITS HISTORIC BED & BREAKFAST INNS WITH LAKE VIEWS AND NATURE-LOVING AMENITIES.

FIND YOUR HAPPY PLACE

Rest. Rejuvenation. Exhilaration. No matter what you're looking for, you'll find lodging options that range from the cozy to the extravagant—whether it's a romantic bed and breakfast, a lakeside Jacuzzi suite, or a hotel that's simply family-friendly, pet-friendly or budget-friendly. No matter where you stay, there are so many ways to savor each day; from breakfast with a view to nightcaps overlooking whitecaps.

HUNGER FOR MORE

Feed your soul. But first, your belly. Looking for rustic, retro or just plain refreshing? You'll find a far-reaching selection of dining options. Vietnamese, Chinese, Thai, Indian and Japanese restaurants that are as much a part of the Duluth eats scene as the bevy of beloved family diners and steakhouses. Bistros that are equal parts authentic, elegant and homespun. Pubs whose burgers, burritos and pizza go perfectly with locally brewed ales or a United Nations-sized selection of imports. Whether you're a vegetarian, carnivore or locavore, you'll find countless originals to whet your appetite and satisfy your palette. Find options on pages 67-69.

The Food Network has featured a handful of Duluth restaurants on its popular Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives program.

For a frothy taste of the Lake, visit Duluth for a microbrew tour. The New York Times dedicated an entire 2011 travel story to just that—the area's outstanding pub breweries.
